Record Spring Movement This Week Celery, Beans And Corn In Supply

Largest movement of produce in the spring season was recorded during the past seven days as 1,175 carlot equivalents rolled from Glades shippers. Celery shipments backed by increased demands for cabbage and radishes helped push the totals to the spring high point.

Rail movements alone set a weekly record for the year as 531 cars left the Glades. The shipments are considered heavier than last year although smaller in number because of the increased number of packages per carlot authorized since Jan. 1, 1960.

Celery returned prices ranging from $1.25 to $2.50 with demand down for the large sizes. A total of 471 carlots were celery alone. Another 107 cars were cabbage and 75 more were filled with radishes.

Cabbage market prices were higher at $1.25-1.60. Heavier shipments of beans and corn also helped the total to a record. Most bean prices were $3.50 with some fair quality lower at $2.25-2.75. Corn sold $3.25, a drop from last week's market.

Escarole and endive were about the same with escarole at 90 cents and endive up somewhat to $1.00 and $1.25. Radishes sold generally $1.25-1.50 with a good demand.

WHOSE RENT DO WE PAY?

Are we helping to pay the rent of the big city stores?

Are we contributing to the taxes, insurance, interest, wages, and the hundreds of other big expenses of the out-of-town stores?

Most surely we are if we buy from them. Isn't it better economy to buy from the merchants of this area?

We pay no more and our money stays where it will be invested for our own good.

Developer Raps City's Procedure For Street Paving

Belle Glade Commissioners Wednesday heard O. G. McWhorter of East Lake Park Developers, Inc. criticize the city's delay in paving streets in that subdivision and call for action designed to provide drainage and street paving.

City Manager C. B. Talmadge told McWhorter that the work would have been done if the drainage problem had been solved. Councilmen agreed to accept McWhorter's proposal to provide profiles for proper drainage if the city would construct culverts and relocate water lines where necessary in a specific area.

The council also heard Ray Wilkinson present some type of assistance from the city for Glades Little League, Inc. Wilkinson, second vice president of the league, said he told the city would study the matter and see how they could help provide bleachers.

The possibility of a municipal ball park was also suggested; however, only conversation took place.

In other action the council adopted a recommendation from the Civil Service Board to accept the new classification and pay plan for the city.

Learned from a report from Mayor Paul Davidson that South Florida Conservancy District might participate in the cost of laying culvert and fill in the S. W. 8th St. ditch. City and district officials will work on additional plans.

Authorized the city manager to invite J. Elbert Barr, Associate Planner with the Florida Development Commission, to discuss the cost of the proposed planning program which was discussed at a special meeting in March. The two-year program has been tagged with $6,000 to $10,000 price tag.

Learned that the Division of Corrections would advance $34,000 for water improvement to the prison farm and authorized the city's consulting engineers to proceed with engineering and design.

Heard that the State Road Department could not share the cost of traffic control lights at S. E. Ave. E. and Main St.

Do-Or-Die Baseball Meeting Is Set

The second organizational meeting of the Glades Little League will be held Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. in the activity room at Belle Glade High School, according to Ray Wilkinson, second vice president of the baseball organization.

We need more interested workers," Wilkinson told The Herald. He emphasized that the little league summer play might not function this year unless more volunteers turn out to help with the organization. Coaches, managers, field and concession workers are urgently needed to get the six-year-old league in operation this year along with Pony League activity.

Tuesday's meeting will also feature the election of new officers for the coming season. Meade Willis is retiring president.

Internationally-Known Agronomist Glenn M. Smith Dies Here Friday

Glenn M. Smith, internationally known agronomist for his work on sweet corn varieties development, died late Friday evening at his home at Belle Glade at the age of 68, following a short illness.

After 41 years of service at Purdue University which included 39 years with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Smith retired and moved to Belle Glade in December, 1958.

Last rites were held Sunday at St. John's Episcopal Church, Belle Glade, and the remains were shipped to Lafayette, Indiana for Masonic rites and burial.

Monday night, Belle Glade Elks Lodge No. 1718, conducted a Lodge of Sorrow for Smith with the eulogy by Dr. G. R. Townsend and response by W. C. Young.

Smith is survived by his wife, Sera Shera Smith, and one son and family living somewhere in the United States, present address unknown. Mrs. Smith left Belle Glade Sunday to complete arrangements for her husband's funeral.

Belle Glade in the near future.

Smith received commendation from high government officials when he retired from USDA service, and he continued to work on sweet corn testing programs in addition to his work as representative for Crookham Co., Caldwell, Idaho, a wholesale seed company supplier.

A 33rd degree Mason, Smith had been installed in some 100 times since his work began in 1919. At Belle Glade he was a Rotarian. In Indiana, he received honorary membership in the Lafayette Optimist Club for 20 years of service in the philosophy of Optimism.

Leading Geneticist Smith was considered the leading sweet corn geneticist in the world. O. C. Woodworth of the Raw Products Research Bureau, National Canners Assoc., once wrote:

"It is not too much to say that the advent of Golden Bantam revolutionized the sweet corn canning industry."

Smith developed Golden Cross Bantam during his work with inbreeding and crossing of sweet corn varieties. He was considered a member of agricultural Hall of Fame because there has never been a hybrid as good in performance as Golden Cross Bantam.

Smith received correspondence from many parts of the world from scientists seeking information on corn testing and cultivation. He has sent seed to more than a dozen countries.

He received many honors for his outstanding work in the popcorn seed development. He was honored by the Popcorn Growers Association in making popcorn what it is today."

Iowa Native Smith was a native of Muscatine, Iowa. He received his B. S. in horticulture from Iowa State College in 1916. He was appointed horticulture instructor at Purdue in 1917, and two years later was named assistant pathologist in the office of the Cereals Crops and Diseases, Ft. Lauderdale and Orlando received the biggest increases.

Band Parents Meet Tuesday, April 19

Belle Glade Band Parents Association will have an important meeting at the band room on Tuesday, April 19 at 8 p. m. There will be an election of officers and also the last meeting before the band will participate in the state contest. All members or anyone interested in the band are urged to attend.

Another facet of the shop-at-home idea is that demand creates service. Admittedly, the reason behind the desires of some to shop away from Belle Glade and the Glades is because some shoppers simply believe the goods or service they desire just isn't to be found in the community.

This belief is no longer substantiated by complete fact. There is absolutely no valid argument for sending your money away from your home community any longer. The public has demanded various types of service, and by requesting, appealing, and sometimes demanding, the service or commodity became available in the community.

South Bay Orders Tower Advertising

South Bay councilmen Thursday authorized the drawing of specifications preparatory to the advertising of bids for the city's proposed water stand pipe first step in a water pressure improvement program for South Bay.

First estimates set total costs of the 100,000-gal storage system at just under $50,000.

In other action, the council learned from a report by City Manager James Hubbard that delinquent water bills amounted to $288.85.

It was also reported that Chastain Construction Co., builders of the SR 80 - US 27 intersection, would repair at least two streets, part of a city tennis court area, a section of sidewalk and other necessary work which were damaged during the street construction.

In other action the council passed on second reading an ordinance dealing with the removal of certain signs from the city's registration books.

Approved a salary increase for Mrs. Jewell Lovell, a City of South Bay clerk, and sick leave pay to Water Department Superintendent Ben Austin.

Authorized the installation of two street lights for two dimly lit sections near homes.

Approved a $25 donation to the American Red Cross.

Granted a tent permit for a South Bay church revival for a two-week period.

A Look At Poland's Agriculture:

Polish Visitors To Glades Complete Year Of U.S. Studies

Eleven of 18 Polish agricultural scientists currently visiting the United States under the auspices of the Church of the Brethren were guests of that organization at Osceola Center this week. Their visit to our county is part of an exchange program worked out by the Brethren Service Commission between the two governments.

Each Polish visitor to the U. S. with his own specialty to learn how our methods or scientific procedure might benefit the agricultural development of Poland. In this manner, the program is nearly self-sustaining. Many of the young people—both men and women—are doing graduate work at universities here.

Five U. S. farm specialists are presently in Poland under an exchange program of the Brethren Service Commission, and at least ten farmers will make another exchange trip next year.

Farms

Talking freely in almost perfect English, three of these visitors told The Herald about the agricultural situation in Poland. Government farms make up only 12% of all farm operations; four or five percent of the farms are co-operatives while the large bulk of the farms are privately owned.

Mechanized farming isn't widely known because many farms are too small to be able to afford the machinery. While co-op farms average 50 to 400 acres each, most farms are 12-15 acres in size.

Growing Things

Poland is a nation of 30 million people—ravaged by war and occupation during most of their history—who are determined to forge ahead in a modern society. As Europe's greatest producer of sugar, Poland exports 250,000 tons per year to Russia alone. Sugar is produced from sugar beets, not from cane.

With a growing season just over 200 days, the Poles grow oats, wheat and potatoes among their leading crops. Although Poland's population is one-fifth that of the U. S., they produce three times as many potatoes.

This potato occupies an important place in the economy. They are fed to cattle, vodka is manufactured from them, and Poles eat potato-meals often twice each day. The potato is also exported along with other Polish products such as chemicals and machinery.

Almost no corn is produced in Poland since the climate is about borderline in nature for this purpose.

Studying

These scientists have been studying in no less than a dozen states, and their fields vary from soil sciences to potato diseases, plant breeding, beekeeping, landscaping, animal husbandry, citrus and veterinarian sciences.

Our interview subjects told The Herald that Polish and other European students learn more from their studies. Polish students emphasize math and spend more time at it. Language is also stressed as Polish students—attending government-supported schools—must learn Russian and one other foreign language. Language studies usually begin before college.

Living Conditions

Wages to agricultural workers is usually paid in products as their migrant workers, too. They come out of the cities in large numbers during the harvest and also move from one place to the other. Many workers also get a form of piece-work rates, rewards, as it were, for doing more work.

Rent and food are generally cheaper by ratio to American homes. Clothing and luxuries are dear in prices and require more work to buy these articles. An American dollar's value would allow a Pole to live about two or three days.

The dollar is exchanged for four zlotys, their unit of exchange. Tourists can exchange the dollar for 84 zlotys. At the standard rate a loaf of bread would cost 12 cents.

Problems Poland has been occupied by a foreign power almost continuously since 1774 by Germans, Austrians and Russians. The freedom they won in 1918 after generations of Hitler's forces occupied the country again in 1939.

Almost totally destroyed during the war, Poland has made great strides in improvements to their cities, schools and agricultural expansion. The exchange student program has brought new ideas to that country.

Although the population was decimated during the war years, the growth averages a half-million people per year. The growth accents the need for agricultural reform, they said.

More important than the exchange of technological information is the free exchange of Polish and American ideas and ideals. The visits here by Polish scientists coupled with the visits of our people to their country is breaking the distance barrier and bringing us all closer to free understanding in a world that needs it.

Some Employment Patterns Changed FSES Report Shows For PB County

February employment patterns deviated from the normal picture, according to a Florida Employment Service publication just released.

Nonfarm employment slipped 100 from January to February with a total of 57,200 on the payrolls in Palm Beach County, according to "Labor Market Trend" Publication issued jointly by Robert M. Douglas, West Palm Beach, and J. W. Mosley, Jr., Belle Glade, managers of the county's two employment service offices.

The decline between January and February was a deviation from the normal employment pattern of recent years when employment could be expected to expand during this period. The small over-the-month gains in which all but two static industries registered were overshadowed by a large cutback in construction employment.

Unemployment spread from 3,900 in January to 4,300 in February. Over half of the local job seekers in February were former construction workers. Of the total civilian labor force, 4.6 percent was out of work in February. In January 4.6 percent was out of work. A year ago the ratio was 3.9 percent.

The January national figure was still higher than the Palm Beach County figure when it registered 5.2 percent.

Trades

From January to February trade inched upward to 17,100 adding 100 workers. Retail trade registered a net gain of 200 while wholesale trade trimmed 100 from the payrolls. In the retail group, over-the-month changes ranged from a jump of 300 workers in eating and drinking establishments to a drop of 100 in both general merchandise stores and establishments dealing with building materials, hardware and farm equipment.

Construction

Construction payrolls were reduced sharply to 7,100 in February when 700 workers were furloughed. The drop was 9.0 percent. This payroll cut was deeper than normal, pulling the employment total 1.4 percent below February a year ago and marking the first time since December 1957 that construction employment fell below the corresponding month the pre-dealing with building materials, hardware and farm equipment.

Manufacturing

After remaining stationary during December and January, manufacturing employment moved up to 7,500 in February, a modest gain of 100 workers over the month.

Hotel Employment

Hotel employment strengthened 8.4 percent over the month pushing to the 3,500 level but continuing to lag behind last year by 2.8 percent.

Farm Workers

On-the-farms employment slipped from 14,900 in January to 14,200 at mid-February. Bad weather, which caused delayed harvest dates and lowered production, was blamed for the reduced demand for agricultural workers. Last year with warm favorable weather and rapid maturing crops, the farm workers numbered 16,100.

Special Election Year Series

YOUR CANDIDATE

The year 1960 has been termed one of Florida's most important election years. From the governor's race to the smallest county office, a bevy of candidates announce their intentions to the public. Through this series, The Herald will introduce the readers to the various aspirants between now and election time.

Dewitt Upthegrove, Supervisor of Registration for the past 15 years, announced his candidacy for the office of State Senator for Palm Beach County, the 8th District.

In making his announcement, he said:

"I believe with the knowledge and experience I have gained serving as Supervisor of Registration, and working with the Legislature in Tallahassee on election laws, qualifies me to do a better job as your State Senator and give to Palm Beach County its just share of state funds to support our schools, roads and other public benefits."

"With the friends I have gained in the legislature, I am well qualified to help bring about a fair re-apportionment of representation as provided in the Constitution."

"I plan to see that funds are allocated for the much needed University of Boca Raton. I will work for economy in government and use good Common judgement in the administration of governmental affairs."

Upthegrove is president of the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Registration and was elected their first President 14 years ago and served in that office for two one-half years.

He is elected Democratic State Executive Committee member and Precinct No. 5 Committee man in and for Palm Beach County.

"I will not resign from the office of Supervisor of Registration to campaign for this important office. To do so at this time would create confusion and work a hardship on the voters. I do not have to solicit contributions for this campaign. I will be indebted to only you—the Voter."

"I am humbly thankful to the people of Palm Beach County for permitting me to serve as Supervisor of Registration for the past 15 years, and will always hold sacred the great trust placed in me during these many years as a public servant, and when elected your State Senator I will continue to serve in the same courteous and honest manner."

Cut Down Sought On Accident Rate

The County Commission this week pledged itself to giving every cooperation to law enforcement agencies in an effort to cut down the growing number of accident fatalities on county highways.

Commissioners Roy Michael and Kenneth Foster who reported on a meeting between public safety officials, law enforcement agencies and the county board, said a number of ideas were the outgrowth of the meeting - ideas which are to be drafted into a set of recommendations for final action.

Commissioner Michael said he had advanced an idea that roadside markers be set up at the scene of every fatal accident. He said other states use this system and it has its effect on motorists, causing them to reduce speed whenever one of the signs are spotted.

"Roulette" Game Fatal To Negro

L. C. Eddings, about 24, a resident of Okeechobee, Center, died Monday at a Miami hospital after he placed a .22 caliber pistol to his head and pulled the trigger in a fatal demonstration of "Russian roulette," according to Police Chief Charles Goodlett.

According to the investigation of Lt. V. R. Clark, Eddings had purchased the pistol Apr. 9. He apparently went to a rooming house at 512 Ave. C with intentions of showing off the pistol or his skill at the wheel game.

Witnesses said he removed all but one cartridge from the weapon, spun the cylinder, placed the gun to his head and pulled the trigger. The hammer clicked on an empty chamber on the first try; however, the second demonstration proved fatal. The bullet entered Eddings' head directly in the temple, the police reported.

Forgery Attempt Foiled For Pair

Two Belle Glade Negroes have been charged with forgery by the Sheriff's Department after Belle Glade Police and Deputy Sheriff Bobby Newman referred the case to a conclusion.

According to Newman, Roosevelt McIntyre and Lula Mae Perkins, both with addresses on S. W. Ave. E, have been charged with the forgery of five checks totaling $449.25 which McIntyre allegedly passed in several stores after Lula Mae wrote the checks to the order of McIntyre.

Using a fictitious payor's signature, McIntyre endorsed the checks and passed them.

At a 5th St. grocery, the proprietor, Myron Lipe, stopped to examine the check. He called an other grocer to check with him and found that the second grocer had received a similar check, Lipe called police.

Lt. V. R. Clark and Sgt. Louis Lowery worked the case before calling Newman into the matter. The two Negroes will be held at West Palm Beach pending their trial.

Important Meeting Set For Leaders

An important meeting for labor crew leaders for the purpose of explaining rules and regulations of traveling with migrant laborers will be held tonight at 8 p. m. at the recreation center at Okeechobee Farm Labor Center on SR 80, according to W. L. Givhan, in charge of the Christian Ministry to Migrants at the center.

Givhan said representatives of the Social Security Administration and Florida State Employment Service would be on hand to explain all phases of the problem.

Each year thousands of migratory laborers are transported to jobs in the eastern seaboard states following the harvest of crops in the Glades.

Givhan said workers would begin the exodus from the Glades during next month if no work was available here, and by the latter part of May the movement would be heavy.

Recent restrictions have been imposed on drivers, crew leaders and the vehicles they use to provide safe and sound transportation to other areas.

Escaped Prisoner Nabbed For B&E

An escaped state prisoner was apprehended at Belle Glade last week and charged with two counts of breaking and entering to commit grand larceny, according to Police Chief Charles Goodlett.

Julius Walker, 29, of Ft. Lauderdale, who had been living at Belle Glade for some time, was identified as the wanted man through fingerprint study at Belle Glade.

Two homes were reported entered Apr. 7, according to the reports at the police station, the Fred Corbin home at 217 N. W. 12th Drive, and the residence of Mrs. Peter Muller, 309 S. W. 2nd St.

Walker was arrested as a drunk and held for further investigation when articles found on his possession proved to be some of the missing articles which had been stolen.

Fingerprints did the trick after the comparison of notes of the articles missing and articles found on Walker. He allegedly took a record player and records from the Corbin home along with a watch and jewelry; then took a travel clock and an amount of money from Mrs. Muller's home.

He was turned over to the sheriff's department for imprisonment pending trial for the breaking and entering and the escape charge which will be placed on him by the state.

among other requirements.

Continuous scrutiny is needed to make certain these plans serve their purpose. The plan seeks to eliminate political influence, seniority as the primary basis of promotions and other discriminatory practices.

Classification Plan

The plan established on the basis of an analysis and study of the duties and responsibilities of each position. It was emphasized that the classification as set forth are on the basis of responsibilities and duties of positions and not individual.

Each classification description includes class title, definition of the class, illustrative examples of work performed within the class, and a statement of required knowledge, skills and abilities which are needed to adequately perform the duties.

Qualified Personnel

Since one of the major personnel problems in any government is the holding of qualified personnel, the plan features a career feature which provides an opportunity to advance, opportunity to get pay increases and an opportunity to improve one's status in the organization.

Positions have been created to provide for such. For example, instead of just being Patrolman in the police department, an employee would enter with the rank of Patrolman I, then after a specified time, the employee would be advanced to Patrolman II. A similar situation exists in the other departments of the city.

New Positions

New positions requested by the city provide for the expansion of services and administration. For the present, certain personnel will hold more than one position. At a later date, the positions could be filled by relieving certain duties from one employee and assigning them to new persons or other employees.

Money's Worth

For the $1,000 cost of the survey, City of Belle Glade got these services by FSU researchers: 1. Remarks on a personnel program; 2. Talk about a classification plan and pay plan; 3. Schedules of pay and proposed salary plans; 4. An index of classification specifications for use as a guide in filling present or future positions when necessary.

The pay schedules and accompanying information will be discussed in following articles.

Retail Establishments Boost Sales In Florida Over National Averages

Retail establishments in Florida boosted sales 41 per cent between the past two census of business periods, 1954 and 1958, well ahead of the national average gain of 17 per cent.

This rate of gain places Florida in first place among the states, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce pointed out yesterday.

"Florida retail sales in 1958 stood at an official, though preliminary, figure of $5,629,294, 000. When final reports are in, it is quite likely that this figure will be adjusted upward to a little over $6 billion, virtually in line with unofficial estimates made by economists in the state," the trade body said.

"Rates of gain, by types of stores, varied widely from the state average. Topping the list in dollar sales volume, among the principal types of stores, were food stores with sales of $1,340,000,000, a gain of 47 per cent during the four years. Automobile dealers' sales reached $1,069,000,000, up 37 per cent. The 'tab' at eating and drinking places came to $443 million, a gain of 25 per cent. Gasoline stations sold $402 es sold goods amounting to $577 million, a gain of 24 per cent. Furniture and home appliance stores rang up $310 million, up 41 per cent. Drug and proprietary establishments sold a total of $221 million, up 59 per cent. The largest gain, 89 per cent, came in liquor store sales which amounted to $144 million."

Henry Elfers Elected To Church Council

At the last meeting of the Church Council of St. Peter's Lutheran Church held April 8, Henry Elfers was elected a member of the Council in succession to Charles Max, who moved from this locality. William Wheeler was elected assistant to the Sunday School Superintendent, Dallas Nehls. Last Sunday at the church services there was an urgent plea to the increased needs of the growing work of the local parish.

Census Time For Catholics

About 20,000 Catholics will participate in a survey which will be conducted uniformly throughout the entire Diocese of Miami next week. The information gathered will reveal the entire Catholic population of 16 counties of South Florida and it will answer many questions which Bishop Coleman Carroll and other diocesan planners must ask in mapping plans for the growth of the Catholic Church in South Florida.

In Belle Glade and Pahokee, the Catholic Census will be taken under the direction of Father Xavier Morris, Pastor of St. Philip's Church. Father Morris has appointed Mr. Vernon Dexter, James Finan and Valentine Galsdon, as Parish Census Committee to lead and supervise the work of twenty teams of enumerators who will call at every residence in this area.

To help the census takers do their job, Catholic families are asked to have at hand the information about their family and other Catholics who may live in the same household. Father Morris and the census takers will appreciate the cooperation of non-Catholic residents.

Church bells, not rabbits, are said to deliver Easter eggs in Belgium and France. According to World Book Encyclopedia, one legend says that the bells which do not ring from Good Friday to Easter, fly to Rome. They return on Easter and drop the eggs.

Easter Message

By Elder E. L. Johns
THE CHRISTIAN HOPE
... CORINTHIANS 15

At this Easter season, when our minds are centered on the resurrection of Christ, it is well to remember that without the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ we would have no hope. The resurrection had to be (and was) "according to the Scriptures" in order to be of benefit to mankind. The thing that sets Christianity apart from, and above, other well-known religions is that Christians worship a risen Lord... a living Savior... One Who has power over death, Hades and is able to give eternal life to those who trust Him for salvation.

Realizing this, Christians today will share the joy, the wonder, amazement of those who more than 1900 years ago, heard the blessed words, "He is not here... He is risen."

Churches Of Christ Scientist

Christ Jesus' teachings about the indestructible relationship of God and man will be emphasized Sunday at Christian Science services.

Highlighting the Lesson-Service on the subject "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Golden Rule from John (2:1): "If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (18:1): "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life, and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage."

The closing Scriptural selection to be read is from John (3:17): "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

Good Friday

BY

Reverend Robert N. Huffman

Strange, isn't it, that the darkest, most dreadful day in the history of our world is known to us as "Good Friday." It is part of the mystery of God that the day upon which His Son, having become a Man, was led to a violent and incredible death should be known as "Good Friday."

On this Good Friday, as on previous Good Fridays, Christians all over the world will give their attention and devotion to the crucifixion. On this one day above all other days of the year, the crosses and crucifixes which hang in our churches and in our homes become transformed into rough unfinished wood, stark and ugly in shape, to which is fastened a living Man; and we see the heads of the great nails which pin Him to the cross.

On Tuesday evening Hooper met with the congregation at their Kingdom Hall on East Palm Beach Road at the city limits. He conducted a ministry-development class beginning at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday night Hooper was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tillman for dinner after which he was at the Kingdom Hall to take part in a Bible study group which meets there each week.

"Christian development never ends," Zea said, "and the Christian minister can always advance in ministerial qualifications. For that reason the organization provides a continuous training program through study of the Bible and participation in Bible educational work."

The wickedness of sinful men seemed hopeless at this point. Yet on this dreadful day our Lord won the victory, despite all outward appearances to the contrary; for Easter Day, the Sunday of the Resurrection, followed closely upon the heels of Good Friday. Death is, literally, swallowed up in victory. Jesus, Christ made the Cross, and instrument of shame, the state of redeeming love; the symbol of cruelty became the sign of mercy; the symbol of fear became one of courage; the means of defeat became that of victory; divine love's worst defeat became its love's greatest victory. It is for this reason that this Black Friday is called "Good Friday."

Day Of Thanksgiving At Chosen Baptist

The Chosen Baptist Church will spend a day of Thanksgiving Sunday for a year of service in its new church. A basket luncheon will be served at noon on the grounds following Sunday School and services.

After the luncheon, there will be a sing with everyone joining in. If you do not have a church home, the Chosen Baptist Church invites you to attend the Easter services.

The Southeast Florida Youth Rally will be conducted at the Canal Point Baptist Church Friday night, April 15 at 8 o'clock. Those wishing transportation to and from the Rally are to meet at the chosen Baptist Church at 7 a. m. sharp.

Jehovah Witnesses Week Of Activity

E. W. Hooper, traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, visiting the Belle Glade Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses this week.

The climax of this special week of activity is the public Bible sermon, WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A CHRISTIAN? to be delivered by Mr. Hooper, Sunday 3:00 p. m. at the Kingdom Hall.

James Gwin Zea, local presiding minister of the religious group, said these visits are provided to give members advanced training in the home instruction service conducted by the Witnesses.

One hour of free Bible instruction is offered in the homes by the Witnesses. "This service is given each week," Zea said, "is giving many local residents a new faith in God and his divine will."

During his visit Mr. Hooper and his wife will be staying with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hair on Wedgworth Road.

Freak Accident On SR 80 Thursday Results In Clewiston Man's Death

One person was fatally injured Thursday morning in a freak accident about 12 miles east of Belle Glade at 6:45 a. m., according to FHP Trooper J. S. Foster.

Dead as the result of injuries received was Horace A. Smith, 25, of Clewiston, who died about 20 minutes after he was taken to Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

Trooper Foster reported that the truck driven by Anselmo Rosario, Clewiston, entered a smoke-blanketed portion of SR 80 and slowed down and subsequently stopped in back of a second truck driven by Coy James Murphy Belle Glade. As Rosario waited for on-coming traffic to clear, a third small truck driven by Smith approached at high speed and crashed into Rosario's vehicle.

Killing some 40 feet. The force of the collision knocked Rosario's vehicle 15 feet forward to strike Murphy's truck, which was forced into the roadside canal. Rosario's vehicle came to rest 114 feet from the point of impact while Smith's truck skidded another 171 feet on his left side of the highway.

About five minutes later an auto driven by R. W. Eckman, Pompano Beach, driving too fast for road conditions, Foster's report said, struck the rear of a stopped or slowly-moving vehicle.

A third vehicle driven by Willis F. Vereen, Belle Glade, approached from the west at a high rate of speed. Vereen, saw the first car on the wrong side of the road and skidded 38 feet to strike the Eckman car.

Eckman and Vereen were charged with excessive speed. Truck-driver Murphy was charged with improper parking on a highway.

Cpl. Reggie Windham assisted Foster in the accident investigation.

Smith was shipped to Bruce, Miss., for interment by Williams v. Wetherington Funeral Home here. No local survivors were located, they said.

Park Site Areas Get County Nod

The Palm Beach County Commission this week approved plans for a new roadside park and boat launching area to be established between Belle Glade and Pahokee.

Commission Chairman Paul Rardin, who originated the idea some time ago, pinpointed the location of the area as "immediately north of the East Shore pump on State Road 717."

The commission this week received a deed from the state for a seven acre park site and a permit from the Federal Government to construct a launching site in Lake Okeechobee.

Chairman Rardin said the State Road Department has plans for development of the park facilities and that county forces will construct the boat ramp.

Man Emptied Pistol But All Shots Missed

Luciano Bolista, Belle Glade Puerto Rican resident, was charged with illegal display and discharge of firearms and assault with a pistol after he allegedly emptied a recently-purchased pistol by firing it at another person, according to Belle Glade Police Chief Charles Goodlett.

The shooting took place April 9 in a S. W. 5th St. bar when Bolista fired at a young man, reportedly in an attempt to kill him. Investigation revealed that he allegedly purchased the pistol specifically to kill the man.

All six shots missed. Bolista fled, however, he was later apprehended in a S. W. 4th St. parking lot, police said.

Bolista was fined $100 and costs or 60 days on one count and $50 or 55 days on the other. Name of the man he intended to kill was not available at this writing.

Mrs. James Ball Is BPW Club's Woman Of Month

The "Woman of the Month" for March chosen by Belle Glade Business and Professional Women's Club is a charming and active woman well known in the community since 1933, when she first came here and showed an intensive interest in the local library. The club congratulates Mrs. James A. Ball, Jr., who will compete with other worthy winners for the title of "Woman of the Year" in the early fall. The winner will be honored during BPW Week in October.

Mrs. Ball, this week was presented a National Library Week Award from the Library board for volunteer work accomplished through the many years (see picture on Woman's page). From the first she was interested in the library, spending many hours towards making the present library one of the best for a city the size of Belle Glade. She is to be credited with assisting Mrs. J. F. Browne during the early years in selecting books and working tirelessly toward an adequate building to house the library.

Through her personal interest and her active concern a good library has been created and serves countless hundreds of individuals who hunger after knowledge.

In addition to her splendid work on the library board from which she resigned last summer, Mrs. Ball has been active in the Community Methodist Church where she has been given a life membership in The Woman's Society of Christian Service; a member and past president of the Woman's Club and worked with the Girl Scouts. She is always willing to cooperate in any way to help the betterment of the community.

Special Election Year Series

YOUR CANDIDATE

The year 1960 has been termed one of Florida's most important election years. From the governor's race to the smallest county office, a bevy of candidates announce their intentions to the public. Through this series, The Herald will introduce the readers to the various aspirants between now and election time.

Kenneth P. Foster, West Palm Beach realtor, this week announced his candidacy for reelection to the Palm Beach County Commission at the Democratic Primary election May 3rd.

Foster, who represents District One on the county board, was among the first candidates to qualify for the election this week.

Since serving as a member of the commission, Foster has taken an active interest in industrial development and securing new industry for Palm Beach County and in his announcement pointed out that his interest in planning an orderly growth for the county, has aided in establishment for a county zoning and building code; pilot regulations which call for adequate drainage and road construction in subdivision developments and a research department to aid in securing new industry for Palm Beach County.

Foster pledged his continued support for these activities which he termed some of the most important in a fast growing county. He also pledged his support for additional public improvements such as extension of the county's road and highway system, flood control measures, additional recreational and boating facilities through development of state and county park lands and protection of the county's waterways and ocean beaches.

He added that he will continue to lend his cooperation for such important matters as adequate support for the county health and welfare department, public health service and further development of the county's agricultural and cattle industries.

"Our county must continue to grow and progress," Foster said, "but this growth must be planned and timed to fit our economic pattern and needs and not at the expense of the public through increased taxation. Sound economy in government is the first trust of every public official."

Personal Foster is an active community and civic leader and holds membership in a number of organizations including the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Forty & Eight, Fiddle Club, West Palm Beach Fishing Club, Elks Lodge, Kiwanis Club, a director of Palm Beach County's Polio Foundation and is a past president of the West Palm Beach County Shrine Club.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church in West Palm Beach, he resides with his wife Virginia and daughter Susan on North Flagler Drive.

More Women Workers; Less Demand For Migrant Forces By '70

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of articles by J. W. Foster, Manager, Florida State Department of Labor, Belle Glade, who discusses the population boom expected in the problem, national in scope, of the need to deal with two facets of the problem: women workers and migrant forces.

By 1970 there will be 30 million women workers in the United States, and there will also be a decreased demand for agricultural workers.

The 30 million workers indicates that the number of women workers will increase two-to-one with men workers. By 1970, one of every three wage earners will be women; two of every five women will be working.

General Growth With these two factors to con-

ment of Labor statisticians:

As our economy grows, changes will take place in our industrial make up. Employment will continue to grow faster in service industries than in production industries.

As our technology advances, proportionately fewer workers will be needed to produce goods we need. More workers will then be needed to provide increasing services as our standard of living goes up.

Industrial Industries will vary widely in their rate of growth. As seen before, by 1970 the total employment will rise 20%. A chart accompanying this article shows the major industries in the country and their expected growth during the decade compared with the total overall rise in employment.

Cigarette Tax Report

L. Grant Peoples, Director of the State Beverage Department, reported this week that net cigarette tax collections for the month of February, 1960 amounted to $2,640,197.10.

Of this amount $694,822.33 will go to the state general revenue fund, and the remainder will be distributed to qualified municipalities. Belle Glade will receive $7,204.37, Clewiston $2,873.28; Pahokee $2,772.31 and South Bay $1,742.70.

Economic Loss Reported By FHP

The economic loss of life on Florida highways during the first three months of the passing year rose to $43,740,000 the Florida Highway Patrol said today.

This is an increase over a comparable period last year, because the total who died in traffic crashes stood at 324 compared with 312 for the same time in 1959.

The economic loss is calculated at $135,000 per fatality and includes all types of expense plus the loss of earning power of the individual in all wrecks.

The patrol emphasized that highway death figures for the first three months of the year are usually higher because of the winter influx of visitors.

Normally, the death toll shows decreases in the next three months of the year.

In 1932 U. S. yield was 120,000 pounds of tung oil. Since then, production has increased 300 times, with Florida second among all tung producing states, under, examine other information projected by U. S. Department.

Agricultural Problem

It naturally follows that if demands for agricultural workers decreases, some useful version or change of job must be found for the thousands of workers who now make their living in the agricultural field of endeavor.

Pilot Project

In its infancy, a U. S. Department of Labor project is being planned at Belle Glade under the leadership of State Representative E. S. Roberts. The pilot project seeks to take 50 families on to the agricultural labor stream and place them in other labor positions. Should this transition become feasible for large numbers of workers, a partial answer to the problem of what to do with the displaced field worker will have been found.

These 50 families will be trained for other positions such as: maid, service station attendants, dairy workers, truck drivers, barn attendants and, in general, any job for which they appeared qualified.

By the summer of 1961 when the project is scheduled for completion, the program should be able to show its possibilities. A that the whole program would favorable project would mean

Regardless of the answer, the survey figures of the U. S. Department of Labor indicate a problems, pilot committee necessity.

Now That You Put It That Way . . .

If experience is such a nail-fired good teacher, then why are we all in such a mess?

Our Community Is What You Make It

By joining an association of merchants and business firms such as the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce, you can make friends and win influence. You can expand your interests, increase your knowledge and give yourself a justified sense of importance and accomplishment. You can help to make a better place to live for yourself, your family and your neighbors.

When you join, you become a more important citizen, an "insider" as it were, lending your weight to the choice of leaders and the formulation of policies on which your future may depend. You are no longer just one of the crowd that merely watches and waits, cheers and groans; you're on the team that furnishes the action.

It goes without saying that you'll make new friends. But you'll find your stock going up with the old friends, too. You'll have new things to talk about and new knowledge that commands respect.

Belle Glade's Chamber of Commerce offers the member benefits which include the services of the national Better Business Bureau. And the new member will find his business better as more and more people notice his window or door emblem stating that he is a member. That emblem means the member subscribes to a common code of ethics and good business practices.

Don't forget, too, that you'll be working for a cause, pulling one of the oars that row the boat of progress in your community.

And Just Why Not?

Our Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction now has under consideration a request from the United Daughters of the Confederacy to name a public school after Jefferson Davis, first and only president of the Confederate States of America.

The whole idea sounds conceivable and logical to commemorate to a further extent a man who held firmly to his beliefs and political ideals. It appears that the naming of schools in the county—anywhere for that matter—has gotten out of hand. They're naming schools after lakes, swamps, a golf course and the first four-foot tall palmetto bush in the county, or something similar to that.

It appears logical to us that school-naming should get back to a more sensible and thought-provoking plane. Putting Jeff Davis' name on a school building would be of historical significance, not whimsy.

Now, before we break out our Stars and Bars and get impatient about this matter, let's give it some eral consideration.

Belle Glade — A Dust Bowl?

Complaints and accusations continue to be exchanged among merchants, city officials and the general public about who will take the blame for our city's dusty, messy streets.

While the merchants demand that the street sweeper and sanitation department in general work faster at keeping streets clean, the city turns the tables and says it can't get the job done unless property owners cooperate by not sweeping trash into the street and keeping adequately maintained.

The citizen is caught in the middle these days when he walks down the street and is blasted in the face by a torrent of dust blown up from the streets.

The verbal exchange is the only action seen at the moment. It would appear practical for someone to lower the jaw action rate and set to work to solve the dust-trash-garbage problems.

Dozens of independent surveys show that customers rely on newspapers five, ten and even 20 times more than on any other media.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night didn't get nothing settled permanent. It was one of them sessions where they just couldn't git together on the major problems. The Congress will go a whole term sometimes with sessions like that so I reckon it ain't agin the law.

Ole Bug Hookum was in his usual lamenting mood and he did most of the lamenting for the group. All his life Bug has been what you might call a one-mule farmer, a feller that's farmed for 40 year without nothing to work with unless he borrowed it. I recollect years ago when I bought my first tractor. I kept it hid three months afore Bug knowed I had it and come over to borrow it. That's about the best I've ever done on Bug.

He allowed Saturday night that the small farmer and rancher has gone the way of all progress and that his place is about to go soon—into sub-divisions. He was mighty bent down with the burden and I reckon he'll cry all the way to the bank when he gets it.

Speaking of complaining, it won't be long now afore the ranchers and farmers will start complaining about how much grain or cotton or someone to plant. I've always said raising crops was a little like drinking liquor. A feller can't ever git the exact amount of liquor in him to suit him. My policy for crops is gitting more and more every year to be about like my policy for liquor—leave it alone.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

We hope you have already filed your 1959 federal income tax return.

If not, then you should put this paper down and get that return in the mail right now.

If you find for some reason beyond your control it is impossible for you to complete your federal income tax return for filing by midnight Friday, April 15, 1960, then you should request an extension of time in which to file your return. Extension is usually granted for good reason, for a ninety-day period; although the Director may grant an extension for as long as six months, if the circumstances warrant.

Requests for extensions of time are filed in triplicate on forms furnished by the treasury and the request must be signed by you or your duly authorized agent.

The forms are available at your local office of the Internal Revenue Service. All requests for extensions should be on these forms and three copies are necessary. "I watch the world go by."

Measured against Conshohocken, Pa., Pleasant Prairie, Kan., Kokomo, Ind., or any other of a thousand hometowns, New York isn't America. It's just about everything but!

Its ethnic conglomerate, its high rewards for the best brains and talent from all the continents, its seat of the United Nations, make New York a world city—the world's capital, really, of money and materialism. As one of many consequences, there are the ever increasing, ever higher soaring skyscrapers which are making of New York's principal borough of Manhattan one vast office-building complex.

Fifth and Park Avenues, for generations symbols of elegance and fashion, are becoming canyons of slab-sided glass and metal structures, 40, 50, 60 stories high; the old brownstone mansions vanish. It's biggest at its biggest: bedazzling, expensive New York.

The evidence accumulates that the average American, however, is becoming less dazzled by bigness. The continuing success, for instance, of the smaller, unadorned but trim and economical Lark by Studebaker is proving this among the motoring public in every home town in our land.

With all its glamor and glitter, its sophistication and its showiness, New York isn't a city that every American should see at least once. It is exciting and stimulating, a continuous World Fair. It is, as many an out-of-towner has observed, "a wonderful place to visit"—but I wouldn't live there if you gave it to me!"

Once used to waterproof Bud-dhist Temples in the Orient, tung oil in paints and varnishes still affords peak resistance to weather, water and acids.

English Classes Prep Term Papers

The Senior English classes of BGHS are busily engaged in their annual research papers. Their subjects having been chosen, they comb the library for sources of information on topics varying from the ultra-modern beatniks to the history of some of the oldest religions of the world.

These research papers give the students experience in recording information on index cards, footnoting, preparing bibliographies, and learning the methods of typing research papers. One of the major projects of the senior year, these papers give valuable information on a variety of subjects, as well as providing the students with knowledge of the mechanics of research.

High School

Confidential...

Well, gang, here I am back again to bring you up to date on some of the latest around school.

Hey, you guys, why don't you get after Karen Gove? She may be hard to catch, but surely one of you are brave enough to try.

A few of the couples who had a party for the "Rainbow Dance" were: Saralynn Poole and Sidney Pearce, Karen Gove and Doug Thompson, Pat Polson and Jerry McKee, Charles Lutz and "Doodle" Brent, Pat Webster and Jerry Rhymes, Janet Rhymes and Ronnie Perkins. There were lots more, too!

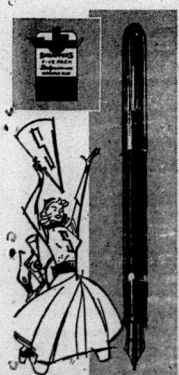

Hey, what's the news on the Davis and Kirchman case? Well, since we don't know, we'll just have to hope for the best. Brooks Whitlock is just too cute not to be hooked. Come on girls, get to work. There's no need letting a good thing get away.

Sonja Figueroa and Bobby Stratton have been dating a bit.

REPORTER OF THE WEEK

The reporter of the week has long blond hair; is 5' 7" tall and has blue eyes. She likes sports and is active in school activities as a member of the Future Teacher Association, Beta Club, annual staff, senior play and Student Council. She has received the "most service to school," "best all-around in the senior class" awards. Her favorite food is shrimp, and her favorite color is blue. She's Sue Clarke.

New Music Received

The Belle Glade High School Glee Club has just received a shipment of new music. The all girl chorus will sing Friday at the Methodist Church for the Community Easter Service.

Large Crowd Sees 1960 Senior Play

The whole town's talking about the excellent job done by the Senior Class of 1960 in their performance Apr. 1. One of the largest crowds in history enjoyed the three-act comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking." The plot involved Mr. Simmons, played by Sid Pearce, who invented a love affair with Letty Lythe, a movie star, (Terry Tucker) for his business partner, Chet Benny (Brooks Whitlock), in order to inherit his daughter, Ethel (Marilyn Matthews), in marriage.

But Letty's producer, and jealous lover, Donald Swift (Griffin Bell), found out about it and was planning to fight Benny. Sadie Bloom (Linda Rhymes), Mr. Simmons' dancing teacher, Sally Otes (Sue Clarke) and Lily Wilson (Karen Vadasz) friends of Ethel, Annie (Linda Evans), her maid, and Roger Shields (Doug Thompson), a Chicago playboy, all added to the confusion.

At the end, Mrs. Simmons (Genie Crichfield) learned the truth and everything was finally put in its place. Several committees helped the play to its successful performance. Following the play, Sid Pearce, Senior Class President, presented Mrs. Nedra Hill, faculty director, with a bouquet of red roses and a silver service from the class in appreciation of her patience and work with them.

Band Activities

The Belle Glade High School Band presented a musical program for the PTA Monday evening in the high school gym. They played the numbers used for Contest. The band attended the Sandy Shores Festival in Ft. Pierce Saturday.

Sportsmanship

It's tough to lose a single game, or even make a slip; And it is tougher when you fail. To win the championship, But do you ever ask yourself, When you have lost a game; What brought about the final score, And who deserved the blame? There is no cause for crying, when, The totals are all in; Especially if you have done, Your best to win. In your defeat you may have gained, The greater victory; Of courage and of sportsman, And team work loyalty. And as you go through life, Success is what you make it; Your loss may make you win, because, You showed that you could take it.

Gerald McMillan and Sue Caldwell seem to be hitting it off pretty well. Jerry Oates, what's this we hear you dressing up nice for a certain cute boy? Who is it, Janey?

Glenn Williams owes Mr. Doster one alligator. We wonder why. Clarence Throp seems to have his eye on Francis Bell. I wonder how things stand with them? Does anybody know?

CHEV! YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS ... UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

Anyone who's looked around knows the majority of Chevrolet models—6's and V's together—list for less than comparable models of other low-priced cars. But the price tag alone is only one of a whole raft of reasons a Chevy does better by your dollars. For in no other low-priced car will you find such priceless advantages as Fisher Body craftsmanship, an X-Built Safety-Girder frame, Safety Plate Glass in every window and countless "extras" that don't cost you a penny more!

The price tags on a '60 Chevrolet and the other cars in its class may look somewhat alike. But there—very abruptly—the resemblance ends.

Nothing near Chevy's size and price can match the Full Coll cushioning of its ride, or the fine, finished workmanship of its Body by Fisher. That even applies to some cars that cost a lot more. You're up in the higher price brackets before you find a car that moves as quietly as a Chevrolet or offers the inner space that Chevrolet does.

Or look at the extras Chevy gives you—of no extra cost—that others in its class can't offer at any price. Shock-cushioned steering. Safety Plate Glass in every window. Keyless locking of all doors. A full wraparound windshield. Vent windows that crank open and close. Chevrolet offers the widest choice of power teams, too—seven engines and five transmissions—including shift-free Turboglide, an extra-cost option.

Drop by your dealer's and drive a Chevy—just once. You'll have a tough time settling for anything less.

Florida's Migrants Who Head North Urged To Remember Child Labor Law

Clem J. Denicke, wage-hour supervisor here, issued a warning to migrant families about to head north for the annual vegetable and fruit harvest.

Many migrant workers take along the whole family, and often there are one or more children under 16 years of age. Denicke said crew leaders and parents should take time to understand what is required of them by federal child labor laws.

Your Library

It has been said: "Libraries are not made; they grow." And fortunately for us, they grow in this great land of ours. Libraries mean much to America's intellectual well being. Especially for our young people, a good library is truly a storehouse of knowledge. And increased knowledge is what this nation vitally needs in the future.

Whether for research or simply for fun and relaxation, libraries hold the key which unlocks many a door to the curious mind. (Ed Tel. News)

The majority of the plants in the Royal Park are those with which American home gardeners are familiar and include such favorites as rhododendrons, camellias, primulas and lilies.

The Gardens were planned to paint up the varied and interesting terrain around the castle. Their plantings conditions are similar to many situations the American gardener or landscapist is likely to encounter.

With its exceptionally fine illustrations, delightful anecdotes of the British Royal family's gardening enthusiasms and wealth of technical horticulture lore, this book is one of the most outstanding
